Village of Lansing Human Relations Commission Application

The Village of Lansing is forming a Human Relations Commission (HRC) to study and recommend programs and policies that enhance communication and understanding among all Lansing residents. The commission will also create and maintain programs designed to build positive relations among all groups within the Village, while also enhancing problem-solving skills among Lansing residents throughout the community.

Individuals interested in becoming a member of the Lansing Human Relations Commission must complete the attached application in detail and submit by mailing to:

Village of Lansing
Attn: Ken Reynolds
3141 Ridge Rd.
Lansing, IL 60438

Completed applications can also be scanned and e-mailed to kreynolds@villageoflansing.org.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to call (708) 895-7208 for further information.

Sincerely,

Ken Reynolds
